

SharePoint 2010 Jumpstart

Microsoft's SharePoint 2010 Jumpstart service provides the implementation of a robust and documented SharePoint environment suited for business operating environments in a simple all-inclusive package.

Services Include:

- Installation of SharePoint, SQL Server
- Patches or updates related to the software
- Configuration of the service applications
- Creation of the initial web applications and Site collection, and
- A two day web based end-user training for up to 20 users

What we do?

- Perform initial planning, discovery session and workshops for SharePoint environment
- Provide knowledge of best practices and final configuration to designated staff
- Provide test plan for appropriate level of functionality

What do we deliver?

- Initial discovery session and workshop to understand customer requirements
- Design document and diagram describing the SharePoint environment
- Installation of SharePoint 2010 and SQL server 2008 R2
- Build document with detailed steps of final configuration of SharePoint environment
- Test document with specific steps to verify SharePoint environment meets customer needs
- Two day web based end user training (3.5 hours per day) for 20 users

Microexcel's highly qualified consultants have the necessary experience and expertise to implement all of the above mentioned services.

To know more about Microexcel's Microsoft Jumpstart services, please send us an email to sales@microexcel.com or call us at 201-866-6789 ext 10.